

ROGENIA MEANS BONDS, OTR/L

Graduated from Hamilton Park in '68, third in class.

Attended Texas Woman's University with major in Occupational Therapy.

Graduated 3rd in class in 1973. Member of Pi Theta Upsilon, OT National Honor Society. Member of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., affiliated with University of Houston chapter.

Work experience:

Washington, D.C. in 1973 with adolescents in psychiatric setting, Area C Mental Health Center, in charge of OT adolescent program

Dallas, Texas:

Parkland Memorial hospital

Angel Incorporated, Inc. (private school for physically handicapped and special needs children)

Houston, Texas:

Del Oro Hospital

St. Anthony Rehab Hospital – senior staff therapist

Rosewood Rehab Hospital

Harris County Dept. of Education (provided services to students in school districts in Harris county)

Corpus Christi, Texas

Avanti Villa Nursing and Rehab Center (Director of Therapy Services)

Harbor View Nursing and Rehab Center and Specialty Hospital –Director of Therapy (OT, PT and Speech)

Regional manager of therapy services for “Integrated Health Services” covering South Texas region

School District experience:

Brush County Special Education Co-op

St. Patricio Special Education Co-op

Alice ISD

Robstown ISD

Calallen ISD

Tuloso Midway ISD

Killeen ISD

Corpus Christi ISD

Retired from Corpus Christi ISD June 2014

Employed part time at Christus Spohn hospital for 9 years

Presently part time: Epic and National Home health services prn

Married to Aaron Bonds, graduate from University of North Texas, Denton, Texas for 43 years. 2 children , Ashlea Bonds, graduated from University of New Haven in West Haven, Conn, and presently lives in Brooklyn, N.Y. and Brandon Bonds, graduate of Abilene University and presently lives in Abilene, Texas. Grandson, Tavian Bonds, age 14.